

The Books of Becor: The Innocent Kin

Nineteen year old Kaitlin McCullough was content with her life. But when her father painfully sells her to a high dragon lord by the name of Nimrick in order to pay off an age old debt, Kat has no choice but to go. While in the dragons service it is not long before she comes across an ancient book in three volumes titled: The Books of Becor. Within its pages are hundreds of sketches, charts, poems, stories, calculations and prophesys, some of them human, most of them not. Things become even more complex when a peculiar sorceress named Ellaria visits Nimrick. She speaks of a curse that is wiping out the survivors who were once involved in a mysterious murder. Kaitlin soon realizes that the books she discovered and the curse that she and Nimrick must break has her right in the middle of it all. She may even be the only one able to stop it, the debt she was so dearly sold for may be the key.
